Peace with Justice Sunday

Sunday, June 7, 2020 ♦ Trinity Sunday

Prelude	Austin Celestin
Greeting	Iker Rodriguez, Yeram Fuentes
Call to Worship	Charlie, Quinn, and Ping Kwan One: Creator God, you call us all. Many: You declared, dear God, that our children would prophesy; that the young would see visions, that our elders would dream dreams. One: Living God, guide us all. Many: You've told us, holy One, what is required: to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with You. One: Fiery Spirit, move us to action. Many: So that justice rolls like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. One: God of righteousness and mercy, guide our feet and open our hearts. All: We lift our voices to you in worship, Liberating One. Amen.

Today is Peace with Justice Sunday	Through the Peace with Justice Sunday offering, the people of The United Methodist Church are able to make a difference together by sowing seeds—and yielding fruit!—of peace. Because you give: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Methodists spearhead a peace ministry uniting Arizona border communities • Pennsylvania students are educating their community about sex-trafficking at home and abroad These initiatives, and many more, are possible because you give.

Scripture Readings

Matthew 28:16-20

16 Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. 17 When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

You Are the Seed

Cesareo Gabaraín, 1979

Cesareo Gabaraín, 1979

Translated by Raquel Gutiérrez and Skinner Chávez-Melo

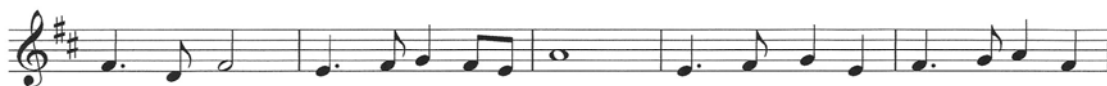

You are the seed that will grow a new sprout; you're a star that will shine in the night.
You are the dawn that will bring a new day; you're the wheat that will bear gold-en grain.

You are the yeast and a small grain of salt, a bea-con to glow in the dark.
You are a sting and a soft, gen-tle touch, my wit-ness - es where-e'er you go.

Go, my friends, go to the world, pro-claim-ing love to__ all, mes-sen-gers of my for giv - ing peace and e-ter - nal__ love. Be, my friends a loy - al wit-ness, from the dead I a-rose. Lo, I'll be with you for - ev - er, till the end of the world.

Sent Out in Jesus' Name

Anonymous

Translated by Jorge Maldonado, 1988

Traditional Cuban

Arranged by Carmen Pena, 1996

The musical score is written on four staves in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff begins with a repeat sign. The second staff has two endings, labeled '1.' and '2.'. The third and fourth staves continue the melody and lyrics.

Sent out in Je-sus' name, our hands are rea-dy now to make the earth a place in which the kin-dom comes. Sent comes. The an-gels can-not change a world of hurt and pain in - to a world of love, of jus-tice and of peace. The task is ours to do, to set it real-ly free. O help us to o - bey and car-ry out your will.

Go to the World!

Sylvia Dunstan, 1991

Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

Our Mission Statement

We seek to build a community of radical welcome that follows Jesus into the streets of the city to increase the amount of love and justice in the world. To do this, we will...

- ◆ Be a catalyst for love-inspired action and social justice.
- ◆ Nurture and inspire Jesus’ followers through dynamic worship and relationship-building to transform ourselves and the world.
- ◆ Teach and live progressive Christian values, including racial and gender equality, inter-faith partnership, LGBTQI affirmation, and empowerment of the last, the lost, and the least.
- ◆ Raise up future generations by fostering a congregation of all ages and developing young leaders & communities.
