Call to Worship

The Wheeler-Bride Family

One: God of our ancestors and God of our dreams, we gather today to remember that you have created us all in your image and in your likeness

Many: And so, we still have the courage to dream the impossible.

One: We remember how you spoke into the void and drew forth light as a companion to darkness

Many: And so, we still have the courage to dream the impossible.

One: We remember the ways you have delivered your people through trials and tribulations since the beginning of time, right up until this present moment

Many: And so, we still have the courage to dream the impossible.

One: You have comforted and accompanied us through each adaptation White Supremacy takes, from slavery to segregation to mass incarceration and as the fuel and foundation for this present nationalist insurrection.

Many: And so, with you, we still have the courage to dream the impossible.

One: God you have been the guiding light along the paths of Hope and Love leading toward Justice where all of your beloved children are seen, celebrated, protected, and radically loved

Many: And so, we still have the courage to dream the impossible.

All: We gather today remembering your presence amongst us and the call to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with you and our neighbors.

Gospel Reading from John 1:43-46

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.” <sup>44</sup>Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup>Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found the one about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.” <sup>46</sup>Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

*The word of God for the people of God, thanks be to God!

Today is UM Human Relations Day

We are all family. When we walk past our neighbor who is hiding in plain sight, we limit the gifts and graces that our siblings in Christ bring to the table. We limit the experiences, the voices and the beloved community that take place through mutual sharing of gifts. With a special offering celebrating Human Relations Day, we join with United Methodists around the world, remembering that the size of the table of divine love is unlimited.

Across the United Methodist connection we come together to help bridge the gap between church and community by participating in an offering set aside for Human Relations Day. United Methodists observe this churchwide special Sunday the day before the observance of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday in recognition of the message Jesus demonstrated during his life: all of God's children are important.

In recognizing Human Relations Day, we are called to make an impact in communities where people struggle because they don't have the tools or resources to reach their God-given potential. Our gifts are part of building beloved community through faith-based volunteer programs, community developers and programs that work with at-risk teens.

Please consider making a special offering to support the ministries of our wider church on our website: stpaulandstandrew.org/give (select the option "Give to 4: Human Relations Day").

Dan Schutte, 1981
Adapted by Carlton Young, 1986

1.I the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my peo-ple cry. All who dwell in 2.I the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my peo-ple's pain. I have wept for dark and sin my hand will save. I who made the stars of night, love of them; they turn a - way. I will break their hearts of stone,
I will make their dark-ness bright. Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I give them hearts for love a - lone. I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send? _____ Here I am, Lord. _____ Is it I, Lord? _____ I have heard you send? _____ Here I am, Lord. _____ Is it I, Lord? _____ I have heard you lead me. _____ I will hold your peo - ple in my heart.

3. I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them. My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send?
Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.
