Prelude	Frank Glass Sages from the East
Welcome	Carter Snyder-Samuelson
Call to Worship	Melanie Baker, Nancy Meyers One: Over the hills and everywhere, go tell it on the mountain: Many: Jesus Christ is born! One: Born to humble beginnings, you surrounded yourself from the start with everyday people. Many: Raised by a young mother, a laboring carpenter; born to a family unhoued for the night. One: Hark! The angels heralded your coming – not to the rich and famous, but to shepherds working late. Many: Wise ones traveled across the land, compelled not by kings or empire, but by love enfleshed. One: In your ordinariness and unpretentiousness, your presence is extraordinary. Many: In recognizing you among us, we are overwhelmed with joy. One: Draw us toward you, Emmanuel, guide us through the night. Many: Confirm our faith in your miraculous love.

Gospel Reading from Matthew 2:1-12

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise ones from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage."

When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'"

Then Herod secretly called for the wise ones and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage."

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.
