Call to Worship

from the writings of Rabbi A. J. Heschel

bj Karpen, Peggy Griffin-Jackman

One: Our goal should be to live life in radical amazement

Many: To get up in the morning and look at the world in a way that takes nothing for granted.

One: Everything is phenomenal; everything is incredible;

Many: Never treat life casually.

One: To be spiritual is to be amazed.

Many: To be spiritual is to be amazed!

One: We may doubt anything,

Many: except this: that we are struck with amazement.

One: When we are in doubt, we raise questions;

Many: When we are in wonder, we do not even know how to ask a question!

One: Doubts may be resolved, but radical amazement can never be erased.

Many: There is no answer in the world to our radical wonder.

One: Under the running sea of our theories and explanations

Many: Lies the aboriginal abyss of radical amazement.

One: Amazing Savior, let us never ceased to be amazed by your presence and power;

All: Be with us now in this moment of our need.

Gospel Reading from Mark 2: 1-12

When Jesus returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door; and Jesus was speaking the word to them. Then some people came, bringing to him a paralyzed person, carried by four of them. And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Jesus; and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralyzed person lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the, “My child, your sins are forgiven.”

Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, “Why does this fellow speak in this way? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

At once Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were discussing these questions among themselves; and said to them, “Why do you raise such questions in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Stand up and take your mat and walk’? But so that you may know that the Human One has authority on earth to forgive sins” —he said to the paralytic— “I say to you, stand up, take your mat and go to your home.”

And he stood up, and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

*The word of God for the people of God, thanks be to God!
