Prelude	Frank Glass Amazing Grace, C.M.D.
Welcome	Kathy Burkett
Call to Worship From Enfleshed	Aurora and Courteney Celestin One: God is calling us Out of the places we hide Out of insecurity Out of shame Out from under that which silences love and justice. Many: Come out, people of God! One: Though we may be afraid Though we will be at risk Though the cross stands as a threat Many: God calls us to courage! One: Our God is a god of resurrection. Of new life after devastation. Of hope in the grip of evil. And so we dare to proclaim, with pride and faith, our truths: Many: We believe in the power of love. We believe in solidarity with the suffering. We believe we are each valuable. We believe that our togetherness is transformative. One: The world is longing for Holy truths that reveal, voices that speak real words of hope. All: Come out, people of God!

Scripture Reading from Jeremiah 21:4-9

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their spouse, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Gospel Reading from John 12: 20-33

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Human One to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and is buried, it remains just a single grain; but if it is buried, it bears much fruit. Those who grasp onto their life lose it, and those who let go of their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, God will honor.

Now my soul is troubled. Should I say, ‘God, save me from this hour?’ No, it is to give myself up that I have come to this hour. So I say, ‘God, glorify your name.’”

Then a voice came from heaven and said, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again!” The crowd standing there heard the voice and said, “It sounds like thunder!” But others there said, “An angel has spoken to him.”

Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake. Now is the judgment of this world; Now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will welcome all people.” Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

The Word of God for the people of God, thanks be to God.

By and By

1. We are tossed and driv-en on the rest-less sea of time. Som-ber
2. We are of-ten des-ti-tute of the things that life de-mands: want of skies and howl-ing tem-pests oft suc-ceed a bright sun-shine. In that food and want of shel-ter thirs-ty hills and bar-ren lands. We are land of per-fect day, when the mists have rolled a-way, we will trust-ing in the Lord and, ac-cord-ing to God's word, we will un-der-stand it bet-ter by and by. By and by, when the morn-ing comes, un-der-stand it bet-ter by and by.
when the saints of God are gath-ered home, we'll tell the sto-ry how we've ov-er-come, for we'll un-der-stand it bet-ter by and by.

Amazing Grace

1. A - maz - ing_ grace! How sweet the sound that saved a__wretch like me!__
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my_ fears re- lieved._
3. Through man - y__ dan - gers, toils, and snares, I have al - lead - y come._

- I once_ was lost but now_ am_ found, was blind but now I see.
- How pre - cious did that grace_ ap - pear, the hour I__ first be lieved.
- 'Tis grace_ has_brought me safe__ thus far, and grace will lead me home.

4. In grace we live, by faith we've come through this pandemic year.
We seek your face, the ray of sun that dries our sorrowing tear.
5. Unless a seed falls to the earth, lies buried in the ground,
No fruit will grow, no life, no birth, no hope can then be found.
6. So teach us to release our fear; let go of doubt, despair.
We feel your grace and know you're near, as we connect and care.
7. We all shall know the Lord our God, the greatest to the least.
God's word be written in our hearts, from doubt and fear released.
