The Risen Christ (pg. 5)

Call to Worship ♦

Dorcas Demasio

One: Christ is risen.

Many: Christ is risen indeed!

One: Listen, I will tell you a mystery:

Many: We will all be changed;

One: Remember what he told us, that he would rise, ascend, and return again.

Many: Because he rose, we rise!

One: Because Jesus rose from the tomb,

Many: truth crushed to earth will rise again!

One: Then the saying will be fulfilled:

Many: Fear is swallowed up in victory.

One: Boasting grave, where is your victim?

Many: Death, where is your victory?

One: We count on the promise of the resurrection:

Many: Because he rose, we will surely rise!

One: Christ the Lord is risen today!

Many: Alleluia!

Gospel Reading from Luke 24: 1-12

¹But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they went in, they did not find the body. ⁴While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two figures in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ⁵The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the two said to them,

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen! ⁶Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, ⁷that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.”

⁸Then they remembered his words, ⁹and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.
