Keep Your Eyes on the Prize

Words: Mavis Staple/Pete Seeger, alt. Tune: Traditional

Paul and Silas, bound in jail Had no money to go their bail
Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on
Paul and Silas thought they were lost Dungeon shook and the chains come off
Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on
Hold on, hold on, Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on!

The only chains that we can stand Are the chains of hand in hand
Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on
Got our hands on the gospel plow Won't take nothing for the journey now
Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on!
Hold on, hold on, Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on!

Now only thing that we did wrong Was staying in the wilderness too long
Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on
The only thing that we did right Was the day we began to fight
Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on
Hold on, hold on, Keep your eyes on the prize, hold on

In Christ Alone

1. In Christ a-lone, my hope is found. He is my light, my strength, my song. This cor - ner
2. In Christ a-lone, who took on flesh, full-ness of God in help - less babe. This gift of
3. There in the ground, his bo - dy lay, light of the world by dark - ness slain. Then burst-ing stone, this sol - id ground, firm through the fier - cest drought and storm. What heights of love and righ-teous-ness scorned by the ones he came to save. 'Til on that forth, in glo - rious day, up from the grave he rose a - gain! And as he love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when striv-ings cease. My com-fort-cross, as Je - sus died, the wrath of God was sat - is - fied; for ev - 'ry stands in vic - to - ry, sin's curse has lost its grip on me. For I am er, my all - in - all, here in the love of Christ I stand. sin on him was laid. Here in the death of Christ I live.

his, and he is mine, bought by the pre-cious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death: this is the pow'r of Christ in me.
From life's first cry till final breath, Jesus commands my destiny.
No pow'r of hell, no scheme or plan can ever pluck me from his hand.
Till he returns or calls me home, here in the pow'r of Christ I stand.

Words and music by Keith Getty and Stuart Townend, 2002

Christ Loves Me

1.Shack - led by a heav - y bur - den,___ 'neath a load of guilt and shame,
2.Since I met this bless - ed Sav - ior,___ since Christ cleansed and made me whole,

Reading from Acts 16: 16-34

<sup>16</sup> One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met an enslaved girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. <sup>17</sup> While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, “These people are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation.” <sup>18</sup> She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And it came out that very hour.

<sup>19</sup> But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. <sup>20</sup> When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, “These two are disturbing our city; they are Jews <sup>21</sup> and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe.” <sup>22</sup> The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. <sup>23</sup> After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. <sup>24</sup> Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup> About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup> Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were unfastened. <sup>27</sup> When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup> But Paul shouted in a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.” <sup>29</sup> The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup> Then he brought them outside and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” <sup>31</sup> They answered, “Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.” <sup>32</sup> They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in that house. <sup>33</sup> At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. <sup>34</sup> He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

*The Word of God for the people of God, thanks be to God.

Re-Creating Through Eastertide

* RSVP for May 9 & 15 by emailing Lea at lea@stpaulandstandrew.org

Explore a Garden that Gathers Community | RSVP***

Monday, May 9 from 6-7:30pm
The curator of our Eastertide programming, Lhana Örményi, will lead us in creating "a sights and sounds landscape," as well as a solar drawing. You don't want to miss this! These activities will help bring our awareness to all that is offered in the Community Garden at 8 West 104th Street. Our time will conclude with a guided meditation.

Urban Farm Field Trip | RSVP***

Sunday, May 15 from 1-2:30pm
All are invited to join us for a picnic and program at the incredible New Roots Community Farm in the Bronx. Bring a bagged lunch with you to church and we'll leave right after worship. Following our picnic lunch, community member, Lhana Örményi, will take us on our tour of the farm, teach us about pollinators, and then guide us through a group scavenger hunt of the pollinators present at the farm. We'll conclude our time with a brief theological reflection of what we've learned and how it connects to our role as co-creators with God. Let us know you're coming!

Travel to 670 Grand Concourse: 2/3 to 149th Grand Concourse; walk north on Grand Concourse to 153rd St. Parking available on Sunday

Ongoing Gardening Opportunity

Saturdays from 10am-noon
Anybody up for some dirt therapy? Join the Friends of Verdi Square, a group of volunteers who meet each Saturday (weather permitting) at 72nd St and Broadway to work on the gardens on either side of the plaza in front of the subway entrance. Dig, plant, weed, water, or do whatever needs to be done. Tools are provided. Drop by to join or just see and say hello. Look for Nancy Meyers, our ambassador in the group.

Meet Lhana Örményi, Curator of the Re-creating Programming Lhana is the Technical Director of The Glicker-Milstein Theatre at Barnard College. In addition to their work as a theatrical electrician, carpenter, and set and lighting designer, Lhana is a beekeeper, community gardener, environmental educator, and mixed-media doodler. Lhana's background in public programming and informal environmental education is founded on a commitment to urban environmental justice. Lhana previously worked as Education & Program Operations Coordinator at Brooklyn Bridge Park Conservancy and served on the Manhattan Land Trust board of directors.
